

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 58

By Marsh

A RESOLUTION to recognize and honor Copperweld on the occasion of its centennial anniversary.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly should recognize those companies whose dedicated service has enabled them to significantly contribute to the economic vitality of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Copperweld is one such company, which began its business operations in Rankin, Pennsylvania, on August 6, 1915; now headquartered in Tennessee, it has been continually doing business for the past one hundred years; and

WHEREAS, since opening its plant in Fayetteville in 1974, Copperweld has become the world's largest producer of bimetallic wire, and it has marked over forty years as a primary employer in the region; and

WHEREAS, through its excellent customer service and quality product line, Copperweld has established itself as a major employer in the Fayetteville/Lincoln County area, and throughout this State; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly finds it appropriate to pause in its deliberations to honor those Tennessee companies whose success has substantially contributed to the well-being of this State and its citizens; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby recognize and honor Copperweld on the occasion of its centennial anniversary, as an outstanding business and employer in the Fayetteville and Lincoln County region.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
